

CAS Undergraduate Committee
Fall 2015 Report
Chair: Julia F. Irwin, Associate Professor, Department of History

The committee worked virtually to approve the following:

- 1 Accelerated Program
 - BS Chemistry to MS in Biomedical Engineering
- 1 New Degree Program
 - BS in Quantitative Economics and Econometrics
- 2 New Certificates
 - Agricultural Sustainability and Biosecurity
 - National and Competitive Intelligence
- 4 Changes to the following majors/concentrations:
 - BA in Geology
 - BS in Environmental Science and Policy
 - BS in Geology with Geophysics Track option
 - Literary Studies Concentration
- 10 New Course Proposals
 - ADV 2214 - Graphic Programs in Mass Communications
 - CHM 4292 - Introduction to Medicinal Chemistry
 - CLP 4134 - Abnormal Child Psychology
 - CLP 4302 - Introduction to Clinical Psychology
 - EUH 3183 - Celtic History
 - GER 3501 - Urban Life & Culture in Germany
 - LIS 4027 - Professional & Technical Communication for Analysts
 - POR 3140 - Accelerated Beginning Portuguese
 - SPW 4145 - Sex and Subversion in Spanish Art, Literature, and Film*
 - STA 4322 - Introduction to Mathematical Statistics II
 - WOH 3206 - History of Sports from National to Global Contexts

Thanks to all of the members of the committee: Robert Criss, Wayne Garcia, Ylce Irizarry, Navita James, Meera Manjundan, Jane Noll, Scott Solomon, Stephen Suen, and Diane Te Strake.

Approval for this course was still pending at time of report submission, but it will most certainly be approved by the time of the Fall Faculty Council meeting.*