Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Directors USF Financing Corporation:

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the USF Financing Corporation (the Corporation), a component unit of the University of South Florida, as of and for the year ended June 30, 2020, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the Corporation's basic financial statements, as listed in the table of contents.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Corporation as of June 30, 2020, and the changes in its financial position and its cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Other Matters

Required Supplementary Information

U.S. generally accepted accounting principles require that the management's discussion and analysis on pages 3–9 be presented to supplement the basic financial statements. Such information, although not a part of the basic financial statements, is required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board who considers it to be an essential part of financial reporting for placing the basic financial statements in an appropriate operational, economic, or historical context. We have applied certain limited procedures to the required supplementary information in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which consisted of inquiries of management about the methods of preparing the information and comparing the information for consistency with management's responses to our inquiries, the basic financial statements, and other knowledge we obtained during our audit of the basic financial statements. We do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on the information because the limited procedures do not provide us with sufficient evidence to express an opinion or provide any assurance.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated October 15, 2020 on our consideration of the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements, and other matters. The purpose of that report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

USF FINANCING CORPORATION (A Component Unit of the University of South Florida) Management's Discussion and Analysis June 30, 2020 (Unaudited)

Management's discussion and analysis (the MD&A) provides an overview of the financial position and activities of the USF Financing Corporation (the Financing Corporation) for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2020 and should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto. This overview is required by Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) Statement No. 34, Basic Financial Statements and Management's Discussion and Analysis for States and Local Governments, as amended by GASB Statement No. 37. The MD&A, financial statements and notes thereto are the responsibility of the Financing Corporation's management.

Introduction

The Financing Corporation is a Florida not-for-profit corporation organized and operated exclusively to receive, hold, invest, administer property and to make expenditures to or for the benefit of the University of South Florida (the University or USF). The Financing Corporation has been certified by the University Board of Trustees as a "University Direct-Support Organization" as defined in Section 1004.28, Florida Statutes. Pursuant to Florida statutory authority, the Financing Corporation is authorized to enter into agreements to finance, design and construct, lease, lease purchase, purchase, or operate facilities necessary or desirable to serve the needs and purposes of the University. The Financing Corporation was incorporated on February 8, 2005 and began operating on March 10, 2005. The Financing Corporation is managed, its properties controlled, and its affairs governed under the direction of its Board of Directors.

Based on the application of the criteria described in GASB Codification Sections 2100 and 2600, the Financing Corporation is a discretely presented component unit of the University, and its financial balances and activity are reported in the University's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report. Additionally, the USF Property Corporation (the Property Corporation) is included within the Financing Corporation's financial statements as a blended component unit.

Overview of Financial Statements

Pursuant to GASB Statement No. 34, the Financing Corporation's financial report includes three basic financial statements: the statement of net position; the statement of revenues, expenses, and changes in net position; and the statement of cash flows. The MD&A, financial statements and notes thereto, encompass the Financing Corporation and its blended component unit, the USF Property Corporation.

The statement of net position reflects the assets, deferred outflows of resources, liabilities and deferred inflows of the Financing Corporation, using the accrual basis of accounting, and presents the financial position of the Financing Corporation at a specified time. The difference between total assets and deferred outflows of resources less total liabilities and deferred inflows is net position. The net position is an indicator of the Financing Corporation's financial health.

The statement of revenues, expenses, and changes in net position presents the Financing Corporation's revenue and expense activity, categorized as operating and nonoperating. Revenues and expenses are recognized when earned or incurred, regardless of when cash is received or paid.

USF FINANCING CORPORATION (A Component Unit of the University of South Florida) Management's Discussion and Analysis June 30, 2020 (Unaudited)

The statement of cash flows provides information in the form of cash inflows and outflows summarized by operating activities, capital and related financing activities, and investing activities. This statement will assist in evaluating the Financing Corporation's ability to generate net cash flows and its ability to meet its financial obligations as they come due.

Financial Highlights

The Financing Corporation's assets totaled approximately $397.2 million at June 30, 2020. This balance reflects an increase of approximately $24.4 million (6%) from total assets of approximately $372.8 million at June 30, 2019. Deferred outflows increased approximately $5.1 million (36%) to $19.1 million at June 30, 2020 from approximately $14.0 million at June 30, 2019. Total liabilities increased approximately $23.8 million (6%) to approximately $393.4 million at June 30, 2020 from approximately $369.6 million at June 30, 2019. The increases in total assets and total liabilities primarily reflect the proceeds from the issuance of new debt during the fiscal year, as described below. Deferred inflows decreased by approximately $97,000 to $150,248 from $247,131. The Financing Corporation's net position increased by approximately $5.7 million (33%), reaching a year-end balance of approximately $22.7 million.

The Financing Corporation's operating revenues were approximately $16.3 million in fiscal year 2020, reflecting an increase of approximately $0.1 million (1%) from the prior fiscal year. Operating expenses in fiscal year 2020 were approximately $1.3 million, reflecting an increase of $0.1 million (1%) from fiscal year 2019. Operating income for fiscal year 2020 and 2019 was approximately $15.0 million.

Nonoperating expenses, net of nonoperating revenues, were approximately $10.5 million in fiscal year 2020, principally unchanged from fiscal year 2019.

The fiscal year 2020 increase in net position of approximately $5.7 million was primarily related to excess lease payments generating reserves, as well as contributions from related parties towards construction projects.

The Financing Corporation closed one debt transaction in fiscal year 2020:

In December 2019, the Financing Corporation issued a $27 million Series 2019 taxable bank loan, as evidenced by the Series 2019 Taxable Promissory Note, to finance a portion of the costs of development of a new 120,000 square-foot 3-story mixed-use laboratory and office building to be located in the USF Research Park. The Promissory Note is a direct borrowing from the bank and was issued at a taxable fixed interest rate of 3.218% with a final maturity date of 2039. The Financing Corporation entered into a master lease agreement with the USF Research Foundation whereby the Research Foundation will lease the building from the Financing Corporation and makes rent payments in an amount equal to 100% of the principal and interest due on the Note, together with all other amounts due on the Note. Upon completion of the improvements and the USF Research Foundation taking possession, the rental payments will be recorded as capital leases receivable pursuant to GASB Statement No. 62.

Total net position	$_	22,724,584	17,029,156

Current assets were approximately $38.5 million at June 30, 2020, reflecting a decrease of approximately $0.1 million (1%) from the prior fiscal year. The decrease in current assets is primarily due to the decrease in cash and the certificate of deposit of approximately $2.1 million (34%) offset by the increase in cash and cash equivalents of approximately $1.4 million (7%) and the increase in the current portion of capital leases receivable of approximately $0.6 million (4%).

Capital leases receivable, noncurrent, decreased approximately $14.1 million (5%) to approximately $264.8 million at June 30, 2020 from approximately $278.9 million at June 30, 2019. The net decrease resulted from the collection of the outstanding capital leases receivable.

Deferred outflows of resources increased approximately $5.1 million (36%) to approximately $19.1 million at June 30, 2020 from approximately $14.0 million at June 30, 2019 primarily due to the change in market value of the interest rate swap agreement.

USF FINANCING CORPORATION (A Component Unit of the University of South Florida) Management's Discussion and Analysis June 30, 2020 (Unaudited)

Total liabilities increased approximately $23.8 million (6%) to approximately $393.4 million at June 30, 2020 from approximately $369.6 million at June 30, 2019. The increase in liabilities primarily resulted from new debt issuance of $27 million, offset by scheduled payments on debt obligations of $13.1 million made in fiscal year 2020. Other liability items in total increased by approximately $9.9 million (67.8%) primarily due to the increase in interest rate swap payable and construction payables.

Economic Outlook

The Financing Corporation was formed exclusively to finance and develop facilities for the benefit of the University and its component units. The Financing Corporation will continue to respond successfully to the needs of the University and its component units by structuring new debt programs or restructuring existing programs for its major capital projects.

In March 2020, the University of South Florida converted to remote instruction in response to the public health crisis created by the COVID-19 pandemic, and on August 24, 2020 the fall semester began in accordance with the reopening plan approved by the Board of Governors of the State University System. While the pandemic has adversely affected the revenues pledged to most of the bonds issued by the Financing Corporation, management has determined that, to date, the pandemic has not had a significant impact on the Corporation's cash flows. Management will continue its strong oversight of the Corporation's commitments and operations. The Corporation does not anticipate any difficulty in making its Fiscal Year 2020-21 annual debt service payments.

The Financing Corporation's diversified revenues and conservative management practices produce consistently positive operations and cash flow. Appropriate agreements are in place and with frequent monitoring of the financial performance of pledged revenues, Financing Corporation management believes it will continue to have sufficient funds to cover its obligations.

Pursuant to Florida statutes, the Financing Corporation is authorized to enter into agreements to finance, design and construct, lease, lease purchase, purchase, or operate facilities necessary or desirable to serve the needs and purposes of the University. The Financing Corporation was incorporated on February 8, 2005 and began operating on March 10, 2005. The Financing Corporation is managed, its properties controlled, and its affairs governed under the direction of its Board of Directors.

(b) Reporting Entity

Criteria for defining the reporting entity are identified and described in Governmental Accounting Standards Board's (GASB) Codification of Governmental Accounting and Financial Reporting Standards, Section 2100 and 2600. These criteria were used to evaluate potential component units for which the primary government is financially accountable and other organizations for which the nature and significance of their relationship with the primary government are such that exclusion would cause the primary government's financial statements to be misleading. Based on the application of the criteria described in GASB Codification Sections 2100 and 2600, the Financing Corporation is a discretely presented component unit of the University, and its financial balances and activity are reported in the University's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report.

Based on the application of the criteria for determining component units discussed above, the USF Property Corporation (the Property Corporation) is included within the Financing Corporation's financial statements as a blended component unit. The Property Corporation is a Florida not-for-profit corporation formed for the primary purpose of acting as lessor in connection with "lease purchase" financings in support of the activities and educational purposes of the University and of the Financing Corporation by assisting in acquiring and constructing facilities on the University campus and, in general, furthering the University's educational mission. The Property Corporation was incorporated on February 8, 2005 and began operating on March 10, 2005. The Property Corporation is managed, its properties controlled, and its affairs governed under the direction of its Board of Directors. The sole member of the Property Corporation is the Financing Corporation. Separate financial statements of the Property Corporation are not prepared. The Property Corporation has limited activity and held no assets, liabilities, or net assets at June 30, 2020. During fiscal year 2020, the Property Corporation's revenues of $23,760 covered its operating expenses in the same amount.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of the Financing Corporation conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America as prescribed by GASB. The Financing Corporation's financial statements are presented as a business type activity.

(b) Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Financing Corporation have been prepared using the economic resources measurement focus and the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, revenues are recognized when earned, and expenses are recorded when an obligation has been incurred.

(c) Cash and Restricted Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Financing Corporation considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents for purposes of the statement of cash flows. The Financing Corporation considers all cash and highly liquid funds invested in money market funds that are restricted for certain purposes to be restricted cash and cash equivalents.

(d) Fair Value Measurement

The Financing Corporation categorizes its fair value measurements within the fair value hierarchy established by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. The hierarchy is based on the valuation inputs used to measure the fair value of the asset or liability. Level 1 inputs are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities; Level 2 inputs are significant other observable inputs; and Level 3 inputs are significant unobservable inputs.

(e) Capitalization of Interest

Interest costs incurred during the construction period are capitalized as part of the cost of constructing capital assets. In instances where proceeds of the related debt are used to finance the construction, the interest earned on such funds during the construction period is offset against the interest costs capitalized.

(f) Capital Assets

Capital assets are reported at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Donated assets, if any, are recorded at their estimated fair value at the date of donation. Costs incurred to construct capital assets are included in construction in progress. Such amounts are not depreciated.

(g) Capital Leases Receivable

The capital leases receivable represents amounts due from the Financing Corporation's related parties (note 8) in accordance with various financing and lease agreements relating to the use of capital assets financed and constructed with debt proceeds. Lease payments are required for debt service and related costs, as provided by each respective agreement. Capital leases receivable are recorded pursuant to GASB Statement No. 62 (note 7).

(h) Security Pledged to Counterparty

The Financing Corporation's interest rate swap agreement contains collateral provisions that require the Financing Corporation to post collateral in the form of cash or securities (note 12). Pursuant to the Financing Corporation's agreements with the University of South Florida, the University transfers any required collateral to the Financing Corporation, and the Financing Corporation immediately transfers the collateral to the counterparty's custodian.

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2020

(i) Deferred Outflows of Resources and Deferred Inflows of Resources

In addition to assets, the statement of net position may report a separate section for deferred outflows of resources. Deferred outflows of resources represent a consumption of net position that applies to a future period and so will not be recognized as an outflow of resources (expense) until then. Deferred outflows of resources include the losses in fair value of effective interest rate swaps as well as losses on bond refundings.

In addition to liabilities, the statement of net position may report a separate section for deferred inflows of resources. Deferred inflows of resources represent the acquisition of net position that applies to future periods and so will not be recognized as an inflow of resources (revenue) until then. Deferred inflows of resources include the gains in fair value of effective interest rate swaps, gains on bond refundings and gains on capital leases.

(j) Interest Rate Swap Agreements

The Financing Corporation makes limited use of derivative instruments for the purpose of managing interest rate risk (note 12). Interest rate swap agreements are used to convert the Financing Corporation's variable-rate long-term debt to a fixed rate. The fair value of the interest rate swap agreements is recognized in the statement of net position based on the criteria set forth in GASB Statement No. 53, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Derivative Instruments, as amended by GASB Statement No. 64, Derivative Instruments: Application of Hedge Accounting Termination Provisions. The change in the fair value of effective interest rate swap agreements is recognized in the statement of net position as deferred effective interest rate swap agreements is recognized in the statement of net position as deferred effective interest rate swaps are recognized as a component of nonoperating items in the accompanying statement of revenues, expenses and changes in net position.

(k) Debt Issuance Costs, Premiums and Discounts, and Deferred Gains or Losses

Debt issuance costs are recognized as an expense in the period incurred as required by GASB Statement No. 65, Items Previously Reported as Assets and Liabilities, and are reported as interest expense and included in the accompanying statement of revenues, expenses and changes in net position. Costs of issuance incurred were $95,075 for the year ended June 30, 2020. Premiums on debt are amortized as a reduction to interest expense over the life of the related debt using the straight-line method, which approximates the effective interest method. The unamortized balance of premiums on debt was $11,310,901 as of June 30, 2020. Discounts on debt are amortized as an increase to interest expense over the life of the related debt using the straight-line method, which approximates the effective interest using the straight-line method, which approximates the effect using the straight discounts on debt as of June 30, 2020.

Gains and losses on refunded debt are recorded as deferred inflows and outflows of resources, respectively, and amortized pursuant to GASB Statement No. 65. Gains on refunded debt are amortized as a reduction to interest expense over the shorter of the remaining life of the old debt or the life of the new debt using the straight-line method, which approximates the effective interest method. Deferred losses on refunded debt are amortized as an increase to interest expense over the life of the related refunding debt using the straight-line method, which approximates the effective interest method.

June 30, 2020

The unamortized balance of the deferred gains on debt refundings was $130,491 as of June 30, 2020. The unamortized balance of the deferred losses on debt refundings was $939,620 as of June 30, 2020.

(I) Net Position

Net position of the Financing Corporation is classified in three components. Net investment in capital assets consists of capital assets net of accumulated depreciation and reduced by outstanding balances of any borrowings and deferred outflows of resources used to finance the purchase or construction of those assets. Restricted net position represents net position that must be used for a particular purpose, as specified by creditors, grantors, or contributors external to the Financing Corporation, including amounts deposited with trustees and banks as required by debt agreements. Unrestricted net position is remaining net position that does not meet the definition of net investment in capital assets or restricted.

When both restricted and unrestricted resources are available for use, it is the Financing Corporation's policy to use unrestricted resources first and then restricted resources as they are needed for purposes other than those defined in legal agreements.

(m) Revenue Recognition

The Financing Corporation recognizes revenue as it is earned. Operating revenues are based upon the terms of the Financing Corporation's trust, lease, and operating and reporting agreements with USF, University Medical Service Association (UMSA), USF Health Professions Conferencing Corporation, and USF Research Foundation (note 8). Other revenues (expenses) include the Financing Corporation's share of the equity investment in INTO USF, Inc. income (loss) (note 5).

(n) Classification of Revenues and Expenses

The Financing Corporation's statement of revenues, expenses and changes in net position distinguish between operating and nonoperating revenues and expenses. Operating revenues result from exchange transactions associated with the furtherance of the Financing Corporation's purpose. Operating expenses are all costs incurred to provide services under the lease terms other than financing costs.

Revenues and expenses from both exchange and nonexchange transactions, including investment income, interest expense on borrowed funds, the difference between interest rate swap payments received and paid, unrealized gains and losses on investments, gains and losses on disposal of capital assets, and other nonoperating income and expenses, are reported as nonoperating items in the financial statements.

(o) Investment Income

Investment income (including interest and dividends and realized and unrealized gains and losses) is reflected as a component of nonoperating revenues (expenses) in the accompanying statement of revenues, expenses and changes in net position. Purchases and sales of investments are reflected on a settlement-date basis, which does not differ materially from the trade-date basis. The cost of investments sold is determined using the specific-identification method.

(A Component Unit of the University of South Florida)

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2020

Investment earnings are recorded on the accrual basis, net of related expenses. Net earnings (including realized gains and losses) are recognized as investment income.

(p) Income Taxes

The Financing Corporation and Property Corporation have been granted tax-exempt status under Section 501(a) as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(q) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although estimates are considered to be fairly stated at the time estimates are made, actual results could differ from those estimates.

(3) New Accounting Standards

In June 2017, the GASB issued Statement No. 87, Leases, followed by GASB Statement No. 95, Postponement of the Effective Dates of Certain Authoritative Guidance, in May 2020 delaying the effective date to the Financing Corporation's fiscal year beginning July 1, 2021. This Statement requires the recognition of certain lease assets and liabilities for leases that previously were classified as operating leases. It establishes a single model for leases based on the foundational principle that leases are financings of the right to use an underlying asset. Under this Statement, a lessee is required to recognize a lease receivable and a deferred inflow of resources, thereby enhancing the relevance and consistency of information about governments' leasing activities. The Financing Corporation is evaluating the effect GASB Statement No. 87 will have on its financial statements.

(4) Cash, Restricted Cash and Cash Equivalents and Certificate of Deposit

All restricted cash and cash equivalents of the Financing Corporation are held with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. as Trustee (Trustee), Truist Bank (formerly Branch Banking & Trust Company (BB&T) and SunTrust Bank, pursuant to a merger of equals, effective December 6, 2019) (Truist Bank), and Valley National Bank (Valley Bank), and have been restricted in terms of permitted investments and uses in accordance with the master and supplemental trust agreements between the Trustee and the Financing Corporation, and the Ioan agreements between Truist and the Financing Corporation and Valley National Bank and the Financing Corporation (note 10). (a) Cash Deposits

Custodial credit risk. In the case of deposits, this is the risk that, in the event of a bank failure, the Financing Corporation's deposits may not be returned. The Financing Corporation has adopted the University Board of Trustees Investment Policy (the Investment Policy), which provides for custodial credit risk. At June 30, 2020, the Financing Corporation's bank balances are held in accounts protected under Chapter 280, Florida Statutes in institutions classified as qualified public depositories.

(b) Cash Equivalents and Certificate of Deposit

Credit risk. Credit risk is the risk that an issuer or other counterparty to an investment will not fulfill its obligations. The Investment Policy provides that all fixed income securities, at time of purchase, shall be rated in the top three rating classifications as defined by both Moody's Investors Services and Standard & Poor's or First Tier consistent with SEC Rule 2a-7 if not rated and being no-load funds. The Investment Policy provides for credit risk. The risk varies depending on the type of investment.

The Investment Policy requires certificates of deposits to be highly rated and money market funds to be registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and highly rated, or First Tier consistent with SEC Rule 2a-7 if not rated and being no-load funds.

At June 30, 2020, the Financing Corporation had the following debt instrument weighted average maturity and quality ratings:

Money market funds Certificate of deposit	57 days 12 months	Aaa-mf P-1	AAAm Not rated	$	42,850,096 3,707,652
				$	46,557,748

Custodial credit risk. The custodial risk for cash equivalents and certificates of deposit is the risk that, in the event of failure of the counterparty to a transaction, the Financing Corporation will not be able to recover the value of the cash equivalents or certificate of deposit that are in the possession of an outside party. Direct investments for the Financing Corporation are held in counterparty accounts with a custodian, in the name of the Financing Corporation.

Concentration of credit risk. Concentration of credit risk is the risk of loss attributed to the magnitude of the Financing Corporation's investment in a single institution or issuer. The Financing Corporation maintains its cash, restricted cash and cash equivalents, and certificates of deposit with institutions that management believes to be of high-credit quality and limits the amount of credit exposure to any one particular investment, financial institution, or counterparty. The Investment Policy provides that the maximum amount that may be invested in the securities of an individual issuer not backed by the full faith and credit of the United States government shall not exceed 5% of the market value of its investment portfolio. Direct investments in securities of the United States government, government agencies, State of Florida Investment Pools, and Pooled Funds comprised solely of United States government securities are not subject to these restrictions.

(5) Equity Investment

On January 17, 2010, the Financing Corporation entered into a subscription agreement with INTO USF, Inc. (INTO USF), a Florida for-profit corporation, whereby the Financing Corporation subscribed for and offered to purchase 500 shares of common stock of INTO USF for an aggregate purchase price of $250,000, or $500 per share. In the subscription agreement, the Financing Corporation represents and warrants that its acquisition of the shares was for investment purposes only and not for resale or distribution. The Financing Corporation funded its subscription to 50% of the issued shares of INTO USF on March 15, 2010.

The Financing Corporation received opinions from its bond counsel and tax counsel expressing that the Financing Corporation is permitted to own a 50% interest in INTO USF under Florida law and that holding the 50% interest in INTO USF will not conflict with or cause a breach under the covenants or agreements, which are currently contained in the bond documents to which the Financing Corporation is a party. Additionally, management deems all of INTO USF's activities to be substantially related to the Financing Corporation's tax-exempt purpose.

The Financing Corporation has accounted for this investment under the equity method of accounting, as it owns 50% of INTO USF's outstanding shares and does not have control over INTO USF. Additionally, the Financing Corporation appoints three of INTO USF's six-member board of directors.

(9) Fair Value Measurement

Fair value accounting guidance defines fair value as the exit price that would be required to sell an asset or transfer a liability in the principal or most advantageous market in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. Fair value guidance also establishes a fair value hierarchy that requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. Based on the inputs used to determine fair value, a three-level fair value hierarchy is used as follows:

Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that are accessible at the measurement date

Level 2 – Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly. Such inputs include quoted prices in markets that are not active, quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the asset or liability. Unobservable inputs reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about factors that market participants would consider in pricing the asset or liability based on the best information available in the circumstances.

The valuation methodologies used for instruments measured at fair value are as follows:

(a) Interest Rate Swap Agreements

Interest rate swap agreements are valued using third-party pricing models, consistent with the market approach and income approach that use prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable assets. The present value technique is used to discount future amounts to the present values. The fair values of the interest rate swap agreements reflect current interest rates and the current creditworthiness of the counterparties. Interest rate swap agreements are classified within Level 2 of the valuation hierarchy (note 12).

The Financing Corporation's accounting policy is to recognize transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy on the date of the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfer. No transfers have been made between Level 1, Level 2, or Level 3 during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2020.

While the Financing Corporation believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different estimate of fair value at the reporting date.

The following table presents the Financing Corporation's financial instruments carried at fair value as of June 30, 2020, in accordance with the valuation hierarchy (as described above):

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Liabilities:
Recurring:
Interest rate swaps	$	18,124,278		18,124,278
Total liabilities	; $	18,124,278		18,124,278

(vii) Series 2015A Housing Certificates

The Series 2015A tax-exempt, fixed rate Certificates were issued on May 6, 2015 to refund the Series 2005A Certificates, in advance of the first optional prepayment date of the Series 2005A Certificates on July 1, 2015. The Series 2005A Certificates were originally issued to retire or defease the University's prior housing financings. The Certificates mature in 2023 and are not subject to prepayment at the option of the Financing Corporation. The advance refunding resulted in a difference between the reacquisition price and the net carrying amount of the refunded debt of $997,085. This difference, reported in the accompanying financial statements as a deferred inflow, is being charged to operations through fiscal year 2024 using the straight line method. At June 30, 2020, the unamortized balance of the deferred inflow was $130,491. The Financing Corporation completed the advance refunding to reduce its total debt service payments over the next 8 years by $3.3 million and to obtain an economic gain (difference between the present values of the old and new debt service payments) of approximately $3.1 million.

The Series 2015A Certificates are not secured by any assets pledged as collateral. The trust indenture contains provisions that in an event of default, the outstanding principal may be accelerated.

(12) Interest Rate Swap Agreements

The Financing Corporation has exclusively entered into "pay-fixed" interest rate swap agreements to limit its exposure to interest rate risk over the agreed term of the swap. The Financing Corporation has effectively fixed the interest rate on its variable rate debt with interest rate swaps. At June 30, 2020, the Financing Corporation had one outstanding interest rate swap agreement, the Series 2012B swap agreement.

The notional amount of the swap matched the principal amount on the associated Series 2012B Housing Certificates (note 10) through the scheduled termination date of the swap on July 1, 2037. Under the terms of the swap agreement, the Financing Corporation pays the swap counterparty a semi-annual fixed interest rate of 3.939% and receives monthly variable interest rate payments equal to 80% of one-month LIBOR.

The following table summarizes the Financing Corporation's outstanding interest rate swap and the related fair value as of June 30, 2020:

Underlying bond issue	Counter-party	Initial notional amount of swap	Outstanding amount of swap	Effective date	Initial term (yrs)	Fixed rate	 Fair value June 30, 2020	Cash Flow
Series 2012B	Royal Bank of Canada	$ 73,700,000	55,625,000	Sep 25, 2007	30	3.939	$ (18,124,278) $	(1,435,372)

The fair value of the swap agreement is the estimated amount the Financing Corporation would receive or pay to terminate the swap agreement as of the reporting date. Fluctuations in swap values are determined primarily by rises and falls in the level of market interest rates compared to the pay-fixed rates on the swaps over the remaining term of the swap.

The unadjusted fair value of the Financing Corporation's swap agreement at June 30, 2020 was $(18,971,902). In accordance with GASB Statement No. 72, Fair Value Measurement and Application, these values are adjusted using third-party models to take into account current interest rates and the current creditworthiness of the counterparties. The credit value adjusted fair value of the Financing Corporation's swap agreement at June 30, 2020 of $(18,124,278) is included on the accompanying statement of net position. As the outstanding swap agreement met the criteria set forth under GASB Statement No. 53, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Derivative Instruments, as an effective hedging derivative instrument, hedge accounting was applied and, thus, the accumulated change in the interest rate swap agreement was reported as deferred outflow of resources on the statement of net position. The change in fair value for the year ended June 30, 2020, was $(5,202,583) which is recorded as an increase in deferred outflows of resources. The following is a schedule of expected future interest payments required under the swap agreement, as of June 30, 2020:

Year ending June 30:
2021	$ 2,104,411
2022	2,013,814
2023	1,920,262
2024	1,822,772
2025	1,722,328
2026–2030	6,960,213
2031–2035	3,793,257
2036–2039	 798,632
Total interest payments	$ 21,135,689

The interest rate swap agreement contains collateral provisions to mitigate counterparty credit risk. The provisions of the interest rate swap agreement relating to the Series 2012B Housing Certificates require the Financing Corporation to maintain a rating of at least Baa1 by Moody's Investors Service or BBB+ by Standard & Poor's on its Housing Certificates. The provisions require the Financing Corporation to post collateral, in the form of cash or securities, for the negative valuation exposure in excess of the $10 million minimum threshold level.

As of June 30, 2020, the total posted collateral was $8,960,000. This amount is classified as security pledged to counterparty in the accompanying statement of net position at June 30, 2020.

Risks associated with interest rate swaps include counterparty risk, termination risk, rollover risk, basis risk, and tax event risk. The Financing Corporation mitigates these risks through the use of monitoring systems, expert advisors, partnerships with experienced institutions, the requirement for strong counterparty credit ratings, contract provisions, and by actively monitoring market conditions. Pursuant to the terms of the swap agreement, in the absence of a default, only the Financing Corporation has the right to terminate the swap contract.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written Board of Trustees Derivatives Policy that prohibits the use of speculative types of swaps or derivatives. The Board of Directors has also adopted a written Debt Management Policy that requires the Financing Corporation to only engage counterparties with ratings of "AA-" or better at the time the Financing Corporation enters into the agreement.

(13) Risk Management

The Financing Corporation is exposed to various risks of loss related to torts; theft of, damage to, and destruction of assets; errors and omissions; injuries to users of facilities; and natural disasters. The Financing Corporation manages these risks of loss by maintaining or causing to be maintained by the lessee of leased facilities, commercial insurance, and coverage provided by the University's participation in State self-insurance programs providing insurance for property and casualty, workers' compensation, general liability, fleet automotive liability, Federal Civil Rights, and employment discrimination liability. Management believes such coverage is sufficient to preclude any significant uninsured losses to the Financing Corporation's facilities. There were no significant reductions in insurance coverage or settlements in excess of the insurance coverage in any of the three prior fiscal years.

(14) Subsequent Events

In connection with the preparation of the financial statements, management has evaluated and reviewed the affairs of the Financing Corporation for subsequent events that would impact the financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2020 through October 15, 2020, the date the financial statements were issued.

On August 31, 2020, the Financing Corporation refinanced the Series 2018 CAMLS Bank Note, the Series 2018A Athletics Bank Note, and the Series 2018B Athletics Bank Note reducing the net interest rates from 3.51%, 3.46% and 3.51%, respectively, to 2.25%. The reduction in interest rates will save approximately $2.1 million in interest costs over the remaining 10 years to maturity for all three Series of Bank Notes. These transactions do not impact the financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2020.

In March 2020, the University of South Florida converted to remote instruction in response to the public health crisis created by the COVID-19 pandemic, and on August 24, 2020 the fall semester began in accordance with the reopening plan approved by the Board of Governors of the State University System. While the pandemic has adversely affected the revenues pledged to most of the bonds issued by the Financing Corporation, management has determined that, to date, the pandemic has not had a significant impact on the Corporation's cash flows. Management will continue its strong oversight of the Corporation's commitments and operations. The Corporation does not anticipate any difficulty in making its Fiscal Year 2020-21 annual debt service payments.

Independent Auditors' Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters Based on an Audit of Financial Statements Performed in Accordance With Government Auditing Standards

The Board of Directors USF Financing Corporation:

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of the USF Financing Corporation (the Corporation), a component unit of the University of South Florida, which comprise the statement of net position as of June 30, 2020 and the related statements of revenues, expenses, and changes in net position and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated October 15, 2020.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Corporation's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Corporation's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit, we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Corporation's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the financial statements. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the Corporation's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Corporation's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.
