Appreciative Evaluation within Education

Presented by:
Cynthia Bauman, Ph.D.

baumanc@fau.edu

Maintaining an appreciative mindset can be difficult within these challenging times. We will explore how evaluators can frame inquiry to ask questions that help build upon strengths within a variety of settings. Finding out what is working well and supporting positive trends can help both organizations and individuals reach their goals.
