

FREE VIRTUAL WORKSHOP SERIES

Conducting Ethical Teacher Evaluations

Thursday, February 27, 2025 // 8:00–9:00 a.m. ET

Presented by:

Michael E. Mitchell M.S. PhD(c)

Michael.Mitchell@fsw.edu

Teacher evaluations must be ethically conducted to ensure fair judgement. These evaluations should be done for the main purpose of improvement of the evaluand's craft. The Model for Collaborative Evaluations is a framework to help guide evaluations promoting the highest of ethical standards, while creating a positive educational atmosphere.

For access to this virtual workshop, please contact

Dr. Lilliana Rodríguez-Campos

liliana@usf.edu // +1 813 528 5041 // bit.ly/3esf5pL

Call for Workshop Proposals:

We are seeking presenters on a broad array of topics at the national and international levels.

UNIVERSITY of
SOUTH FLORIDA