

Graduate Students at the American Evaluation Association 2013 Washington DC

Several students in the Department of Educational Measurement and Research (EMR) represented USF at the American Evaluation Association (AEA) Conference 2013. The Annual AEA Conference held in Washington DC had the participation of 17 students who were previously enrolled in the courses EDF 6461: Foundations of Applied Evaluation or EDF 7940: Supervised Practicum in Applied Evaluation, taught by Dr. Liliana Rodríguez-Campos. Since Dr. Rodríguez became the professor of the graduate evaluation courses in the EMR Department, she has motivated her students to go beyond the courses objectives in order to represent USF in important evaluation events.

With Dr. Rodríguez's encouragement and guidance, her doctoral students prepared and submitted their evaluation proposals to be presented at the AEA Conference. As a result, students' proposals were accepted and they traveled to Washington DC to present their work. The following are the doctoral students who represented USF at the AEA Conference last October 2013: Maha Alamoud, Fayez Alshehri, Leanna Bolyard, Lynette Henry, Anh Kellermann, Jennifer Lewis, Samuel Matos, Kelly McCarthy, Sarah Mirlenbrink Bombly, Eunkyung Na, Diep Nguyen, Richard Osorio, Thanh Pham, Kevin Stockslager, Connie Walker-Egea, Margaret Walsh, and Tiffany L. Young.

This is another example of encouragement and collaborative work at USF!
