

Graduate Students at the American Evaluation Association 2014
Denver, Colorado

Several students taking evaluation courses in the Department of Educational and Psychological Studies represented USF at the American Evaluation Association (AEA) Conference 2014. The Annual AEA Conference held in Denver had the participation of 17 students who were previously enrolled in the courses EDF 6461: Foundations of Applied Evaluation or EDF 7940: Supervised Practicum in Applied Evaluation, taught by Dr. Liliana Rodríguez-Campos. She has motivated her students to go beyond the courses objectives in order to represent USF in important evaluation events.

With Dr. Rodríguez's encouragement and guidance, her doctoral students prepared and submitted their evaluation proposals to be presented at the AEA Conference. As a result, students' proposals were accepted and they traveled to Denver to present their work. The following are the graduate students who represented USF at the AEA Conference last October 2014: Abeer Alamri, Shetay Ashford, Kyle English, Oriana Eversole, Lynette Henry, Tyler Hicks, Jessica Kearbey, Jan Mahowski, Michael Mitchell, Walter Rosales Mejía, Janice Sullivan, Darran Town, Vanessa Vernaza-Hernandez, Michael Voris, Tiffany L. Young, Connie Walker-Egea, and Yan Wang.

This is another example of encouragement and collaborative work at USF!
