

US-Ghana Collaboration: Global Research on Water, Sanitation & Science Education

Summer program in Tampa, Florida & Cape Coast, Ghana

- Pre-travel orientation and research methods training at University of South Florida (USF) Tampa.
- 5 weeks of research in collaboration with University of Cape Coast, Ghana and Ghanaian high schools.
- Post-travel research and dissemination activities at USF Tampa.
- Tentative dates for travel to Ghana: July 2nd to August 5th, 2023.

Eligibility:

- Undergraduate or graduate students.
- Majors in STEM, STEM Education, Public Health, or Social Sciences.
- US citizens or permanent residents.

Learn about:

- Water and sanitation technologies.
- Carrying out science education research.

All expenses are covered by the National Science Foundation

For more information & to apply visit:

www.usf.edu/nsf-ires

Ghana National College students measuring gas collection in biodigesters

Ghana National College students with their project poster

Application

Deadline:

February 27, 2023

For more information
contact:

ires-wash@usf.edu