

USF System Fact Book 2011/12

The University of South Florida System is comprised of four member institutions.

- USF,* the doctoral granting institution, located in Tampa
- USF St. Petersburg*
- USF Sarasota-Manatee*
- USF Polytechnic, located in Lakeland

* Separately accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS).

The USF System member institutions span the Tampa Bay region; however, true to their differentiated missions, the member institutions collectively provide educational services across the state of Florida and beyond.

Our students learning together today will deliver a new full spectrum model of health care.

USF St. Petersburg

USF St. Petersburg offers master's level and undergraduate programs in the arts and sciences, business and education within a student-centered environment. The first regional institution in the USF System with separate accreditation, USFSP distinguishes itself by its urban waterfront location in downtown St. Petersburg and its focus on undergraduate research, civic engagement and small classes. Most faculty members hold the highest degree in their field and teach courses from the freshman to graduate level. USFSP retains its separate identity and mission while contributing to and benefiting from the associations, cooperation, and shared resources of a premier national research university.

USF Polytechnic

USF Polytechnic is Florida's first and only public polytechnic and provides an extraordinary opportunity to experience applied learning and research in a personalized setting. USFP students have learned to expect the polytechnic's multidisciplinary focus, hands-on learning, and real-world application—all delivered within a supportive campus community.

USFP is also engaged in the process of building a new campus on I-4, midway between Tampa and Orlando. This new campus, designed by one of the world's leading architects, is expected to be a model of "the new American university."
