

Withdrawal for Military Service

UNIVERSITY of
SOUTH FLORIDA

Student Success
Office of the Registrar

This form is used by students wishing to withdraw from courses due to active military service (F.S. 1004.07). Students may withdraw from individual courses or from all courses during the current term or within six months after a term has ended. Separate forms are required for multiple terms. Submit completed Withdrawal for Military Service form including all required supporting documentation to the Office of the Registrar at registrarupdates@usf.edu.

Upon review, students will receive a grade of MW, Military Withdrawal, on their academic transcript for the courses listed. Course withdrawals due to active military service are processed without penalty and students are not responsible for tuition and fees.
